

June 2010

Dyteqta Limited – Dyteqta System

The product is not sufficiently related to infection control procedures to merit consideration by the Panel (recommendation 7)

This product is a preventative monitoring system for building drainage systems which aims to reduce infected aerosol transmission from water taps via the airflow.

Data were absent linking the transmission of healthcare associated infections to drains.